

MEGHAN & JAKE

Hello!
We are Meghan and Jake.

We greatly appreciate the time you are taking to read about us.

We want to let you know how much we admire your courage
and strength as you make this important decision. It takes a very selfless and strong person to choose adoption and help give a couple the gift of parenthood.

We hope our story will help you find the home you dream
for your baby.
We hope we are that family.

HOW WE MET: Although we are from the same hometown in Michigan, we met one another in Florida through mutual friends in 2005. Even though Jake moved back to Michigan in 2007, we stayed in touch. In 2009, while visiting her family in Michigan, we decided that we would give things a try and the rest is history! We got engaged in February 2012 and married in July 2013.

After trying to have children for five years with no luck, we knew it was time for us to seek an alternative. We kicked around the idea of infertility treatments, but after careful consideration, we felt adoption was the right choice for us to start our family. We promise to provide your child with a loving family and all the support they need to accomplish anything they want to in life.

THINGS WE LOVE TO DO TOGETHER

We both share a lot of the same interests and hobbies.

We take yearly trips to Michigan to see our family for a few weeks at a time. We like to watch football on Saturdays and Sundays. Meghan is a Michigan fan and Jake is a Michigan State fan (the only divided part of our house!).

What Jake loves about Meghan...

Meghan is one of the most caring, honest, and intelligent person I know. Every day when I get home, I love to see her smiling face. I can have a bad day, but when I come home to my wife, everything is better. There is no other person I would want to spend the rest of my life with. She is an amazing wife, and I know she will be an amazing mother.

What Meghan loves about Jake...

Jake is my rock and my best friend. He is outgoing, fun, and has a natured spirit. He sees the good in everything. I love how much he loves his family and friends; he is always there to lend a helping hand. He is wonderful husband; I can't wait to see him be a dad!

We believe a parent's responsibility is to teach their child about the world and help them learn the things needed to succeed in life. Parenting means encouraging your children to do their best. Parents are there to celebrate happy times and provide comfort in sad times. Also, as parents, we will set clear rules and be fair in enforcing them. We will promise to live up to these responsibilities and be the best parents we can be.

The Kind Of Parents
We Will Be

Education is very important to us. We will ensure that our child will enjoy school and love the joy of learning new things. We will encourage and support our child through the highest level of education that they would like to pursue. We will provide them with all the resources necessary to reach his or her highest potential, so that he/she can accomplish anything they want in life.

WHERE We Live

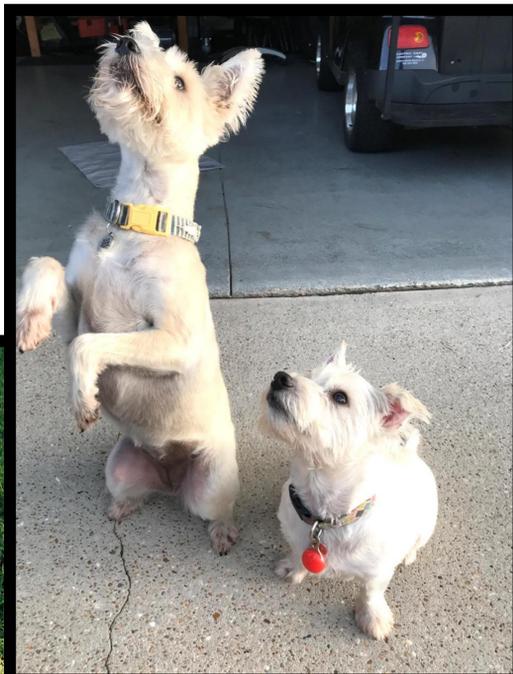

We love our house! We chose our neighborhood because it is quiet yet close to town. Our home has a fenced backyard and is located on a golf course. We live in a gated community with a playground and neighborhood pool. We are a short drive to both Destin and Panama City, so a day at the beach with all the fun attractions are always an option on the weekends and any time we have off from work.

MEET Sophie & Dublin

We adopted two dogs, Sophie and Dublin. They are both terriers and have amazing personalities. They are friendly dogs and love to play with anyone who is willing!
