

ASHLEE & GRANT

Our Journey to You

Our Promise to You

We promise to love your daughter and raise her to be strong and kind. We promise to cherish her and nurture her, to encourage her and to stand by her side. We promise to be committed to her happiness and her success; celebrating all the small wins and life's big milestones. We promise to inspire her to be curious and courageous.

About us...

We are full of love and can't wait to share it with our little girl. Our family is close, corksy and fun. We love the outdoors and new adventures! Our hobbies are camping, paddle boarding, jet skiing, hiking, and laying poolside. My favorite thing is to see someone experience something for the first time, I can't wait to share memories and experience with our daughter. We are foodies, the best night is trying a new recipe from Pinterest and sharing dinner with family and friends. We do holidays big, never missing a time to celebrate. We attend Sunday morning service at First Baptist Pensacola, where we have found our church home. Family is important, it takes a village, and we have an amazing support group. I have one brother, a sister-in-law I adore, two nieces and one nephew that is all boy. Grant and his cousin are super close, and we love to hang out with her and her two girls. We have two small dogs that love to cuddle. Grant has had the privilege of raising the smartest boy I know, he will be 18 this year and a daughter who is a nurse and has a heart for helping. This will be my first and only, and I hope you will choose us as parents for you baby.

We have fun...

We love the outdoors. There is nothing better than warm sunshine and fresh air. Camping (or Glamping) makes up most of our family vacations.

Adventures are best with family...

You can find our fun and corky family jet skiing on the lake, relaxing on the beach or exploring the outdoors.

There is always something new...

We love to share experiences together. New foods, new sights, new experiences, new cities- we love it all. There is always something to explore and new things to learn.

Celebrate BIG!

Our family never misses a chance to celebrate. Birthday parties, 4 of July cookouts, Halloween... it's just another chance to come together, enjoy each others company and have fun.

Christmas... is MY FAVORITE!

Not because of the gifts- because of the family time, the warm memories, the delicious food, the beautiful decorations and the sweet cinnamon smells.

My favorite childhood Christmas memory is how my mom always had the kitchen stocked with homemade Christmas Candy. She always let me and my brother help make it, despite the powdered sugar mess that ensued.

FAMILY VACA!

From the shoreline to the mountains- nothing beats family vacation memories.

It's a tradition.

Every year my Gran and Poppa would take my brother and me camping to Lake Martin. When my brother had kids, we picked the tradition back up.

As a kid, it was my favorite place and I remember riding down the lake in my Poppa's bass boat thinking, "These people are so lucky, they have a house here. They can be on the lake anytime they want." In June 2021, Grant and I purchased a lake house for family getaways. It's my first childhood dream come true. We can't wait to make memories there with our daughter.

Home projects are fun too.

Grant is super handy and I'm, well... I'm learning. We enjoy doing project around the house including gardening, home improvements and whatever I find on Pinterest.

It's not all play.

We have a work family that we love. We both have careers that are rewarding. I usually work from home in Human Resources but when my team needs me, I get to work side by side them in the field. Grant is a regional manager and based in Pensacola. Both our jobs allow for flexibility for working parents.

Thank You.

We can't begin to imagine the burden on your heart. We can't pretend to know what it must be like to choose to place the responsibility of your child into the hands of another person. All we can do, is tell you thank you. Thank you for taking the time to consider us. Thank you for loving your child more courageously than most and making a choice that is too difficult for others to fathom.
