To A Loving Mother

Your thoughtful consideration of us as potential adoptive parents is deeply appreciated. The magnitude of your decision and the journey you have undertaken to reach this point are beyond words. We are profoundly grateful for your courage, regardless of the outcome of your selection process. The strength and selflessness required to opt for adoption speak volumes about your character.

Pregnancy demands resilience, and your choice to allow adoption is truly remarkable. Your bravery is admirable, and we believe that you will be abundantly blessed. Though we have yet to meet, rest assured that our thoughts and prayers have been with you and your baby for an extended period.

Feeling a void in our family, we are eager to expand our hearts and home with more love and joy through adoption. Our household is already a place overflowing with affection and laughter, and the addition of a child through adoption would only enhance the abundance of love.

We are committed to providing unwavering love, guidance, and support to your child throughout their life. Your baby would always be informed of your remarkable strength and the profound impact of your decision. Adoption, in our eyes, is a beautiful and transformative journey, and we are eager to walk alongside you on this path.

Our Story

Fifteen years ago, on a July evening at a party, Lorn and Ajori's paths collided as Ajori "bumped" into Lorn while crossing the room. The connection was instant, leading to their first date the very next day. Both agree it was love at first sight. Daily phone calls and spending time together led to their December wedding. Right from the beginning, they prioritized God in their relationship, making Him the cornerstone of their family. They believe that having Him at the core of their family enhances their bond. Their commitment to honesty and transparency is unwavering. They make it a point to communicate openly and sincerely, ensuring that neither is left in the dark or uncertain about their thoughts, valuing open and honest dialogue above all.

MEET Ajori "AJ"

I am Ajori Burkhammer, also known as "AJ." My interests include spending quality time with family, enjoying baseball games, picnicking in parks, exploring antique and thrift shops, among other activities. Originally from Monterey, California, I relocated to Georgia at the age of 7, where most of my extended family now resides, comprising aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents, parents, brother, and niece. Family traditions include festive holiday decorations, with Christmas being a particularly cherished celebration. Prioritizing travel, we venture to diverse destinations such as beaches, mountains, amusement parks, and cities rich in museums and zoos. Professionally, I have served as the Executive Director of Operations for five physician offices in Metro-Atlanta for the past nine years. Working remotely provides me with the flexibility to place family commitments above all else.

Noah

Noah is our 14-year-old who has been wishing for a sibling at the dinner table since he was knee-high to a grasshopper. This thrill-seeking young man can't wait to step into the big brother spotlight! When he's not crushing it in baseball or conquering e-sports, you'll find him reeling in fish, whipping up culinary masterpieces, or just chilling with his buddies. A guitar prodigy since the age of 5, Noah can strum up a storm on both the acoustic and electric guitar, and he's even performed for audiences in school holiday shows.

OUR HOME & NEIGHBORHOOD

We live in a three-bedroom, three-bathroom home that was built in 2022 and has only been lived in by our family. Located within a family-oriented gated community, our home is close to a beautiful state park. Our property has a charming fenced backyard, a favorite spot for our two small dogs to sunbathe. The neighborhood features well-maintained sidewalks ideal for leisurely walks, and many residents, including ourselves, utilize golf carts for swift access to the community amenities such as the clubhouse, pool, tennis courts, and playground. Our community thrives on a strong sense of fellowship, where residents engage in porch gatherings and create a safe environment for children to play and explore freely.

Family + Friends

Our extended family and friends hold significant importance in our lives, and we cherish the time spent together. Ajori's immediate family, including her brother, grandparents, parents, and niece, reside nearby. Additionally, we are fortunate to have close relationships with various aunts, uncles, and numerous cousins whom we frequently visit. Lorn's mother resides in West Virginia, along with his sister and her family, with whom we stay in touch through phone calls and visits during school breaks. Engaging with our baseball and church communities brings us joy and support from our friends. Our daily routine is enriched by shared activities such as baseball practices/games, outdoor grilling, and exciting outings. We love coming together to celebrate holidays and birthdays as a close-knit group.

Adventure Awaits! Whether it's attending baseball games, camping in the mountains, unwinding on the beach, exploring the magic of Disney World, or embarking on international journeys, we eagerly embrace new experiences to immerse our family in diverse cultural dining, traditions, and histories.

Thank you

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for taking the time to explore our profile and considering us for this significant journey. Your strength, courage, and love of life are truly admirable. Your willingness of entrusting your precious child with us reflects your remarkable character. Should you choose us, rest assured that your precious child will be embraced with the same affection and encouragement we wholeheartedly offer to our fourteen-year-old son. He eagerly anticipates the opportunity to welcome a sibling, a desire that is mutual with our desire to expand our family. Our family, friends, and church community will provide unconditional love to your child and we will embrace all the precious moments as he or she grows.

WITH LOVE,

Ajovi & Lorn
