

MIKE and HEIDY

HELLO.

First, we want to thank you for considering us as parents for your child. We can't begin to understand what you're going through, but we are deeply moved by your strength and bravery. Please know that we admire your courage and are sending you all our love and support during this time.

We promise to honor the adoption process to ensure you feel seen and heard and are eager to learn more about you and what you hope and dream for your child. As you turn through these pages, we hope you'll see that our relationship is built on love, trust, and respect, and we are excited to grow as a family, ready to share all the love and joy we have.

Our gratitude to you for taking the time to learn about us and considering us as parents is truly endless—thank you!

With Love,

Mike + Heidi

"We hope that you will see how much our family and friends mean to us. We love sharing home cooked meals, spending sunny days at the beach, and hanging out at home with our pups. We work hard to never miss a chance to have fun, and travel, but most of all we look forward to the day that we can raise a child to be the very best they can be and have a family of our own."

OUR LOVE STORY

We first met online through Match.com, and I always joke that it was the best $20 either of us has ever spent! Mike was drawn to my profile and felt an instant connection, even though there was no photo. After weeks of chatting, we finally met for a movie, and the rest is history! Two years later, we got married, surrounded by friends and family as we celebrated our love, a day we will never forget!

As a couple, we enjoy doing almost everything together, from relaxing by the pool to hitting the gym, attending sporting events, and traveling. Disney holds a special place in our hearts, and we frequently visit the parks and have recently gone on Disney cruises. We also like playing retro video games, watching WWE, and love spending time with our niece (age 6) and nephew (age 3) on the weekends hanging out.

Above all, we cherish our openness and communication, always working together to make the best decisions for our family. We are beyond excited to become parents and share our lives with a child—introducing them to new adventures, nurturing their passions, and watching them grow into their own person. A child will always know they are unconditionally loved, supported, safe, and valued by us! We are so thrilled to embark on this journey of parenthood.

Mik's positive outlook on life and unwavering faith have been a source of strength for both of us. He has a natural gift for problem-solving, loves educating others, and approaches every challenge with optimism. His kind heart and generous spirit make me proud to call him my husband.

He's an amazing cook and enjoys recreating dishes from around the world—he's my very own version of Disney's Ratatouille! Mike also has a passion for hockey, especially watching the Florida Panthers, and he's fond of retro video games like Mario Kart, which we often play together. He works as a successful salesman and leads a team, excelling in this role due to his dedication, leadership, and passion for helping others reach their full potential.

Mike was born to be a father. He's excited to experience the world again through a child's eyes, teaching them about life and supporting them in everything they do. I know he will be the most loving, selfless, and devoted dad, guiding a child with tenderness and care. With Mike as a father, a child will always feel safe, supported, and cherished.

Heidy is the most thoughtful, loving, and organized person I've ever known. She has an incredible talent for making everyone around her feel special and cared for. Whether surprising me with a kind gesture or ensuring our home runs smoothly, Heidi's love shines through in everything she does.

She enjoys staying active by going to the gym, keeping our home beautiful, and staying busy with hobbies like reading and treasure hunting for décor for any special event being organized. Recently, Heidi has taken up pottery and loves exploring her creative side. She is the glue that holds the entire family together—her nurturing spirit and dedication to our loved ones make me confident she will be an extraordinary parent.

As a parent, Heidi will be patient, loving, and fully engaged. She will guide a child through life with stability, warmth, and kindness. I can't wait to see her share her passions and create beautiful memories with a child. Heidy will be there every step of the way, encouraging a child through difficult times and cheering them on during moments of success, no matter how big or small the victory. Heidi will be an AMAZING mom!

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

We live in a lovely neighborhood in Florida, close to parks, excellent schools, and plenty of kid-friendly attractions like zoos and water parks. We love our home for its cozy, inviting atmosphere, and it's where we enjoy hosting family and friends. We can't wait to share this space with a child, from splashing in the pool, playing with our pups and enjoying backyard BBQs to hosting swim parties with their friends.

We're especially excited to introduce a child to our favorite family traditions—karaoke nights, decorating for the holidays, Friday Pizza Parties, Taco Tuesdays, and spending time at our nearby beach or boating out on the ocean. For us, home is truly where the heart is, and our hearts and home are ready and eager to welcome a child into it.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

Having fun is a huge part of our lives, and it's so important to us that a child experiences the joy and wonders that life has to offer. We will always make time to celebrate their achievements, and we hope to fill it with as many smiles and laughs as possible. We're excited to explore the world as a family—whether it's going on bike rides, visiting theme parks, discovering the beauty of national parks, or setting sail on Disney cruises.

One of our favorite traditions is "Family Adventure Day," where we try something new every month, and we love our summer pontoon trips to a private beach. Holidays are extra special, from dressing up for Halloween to decorating for Christmas and spending long, sunny afternoons at the park or zoo. We can't wait to see what joys a child will have and look forward to creating traditions that reflect their unique interests!!

WHO WE LOVE

Our incredible community of family and friends are thrilled for us to become parents of our own and excited to welcome a child into this loving circle. Our mothers can't wait to be grandmoms and plan to be actively involved in a child's life. They are looking forward to weekend visits, outings, and special adventures like trips to the beach or Disney World. Mike's sister is equally excited to be an aunt, and our cousins and aunts are eager to shower a child with love and affection. Our family loves spending time together—whether it's swimming, traveling, or celebrating holidays—and a child will be surrounded by a strong, supportive, and joyful extended family!

"We understand the value of a strong community and will make sure your child is always surrounded by caring mentors, teachers, friends, and family who can offer extra support and love."

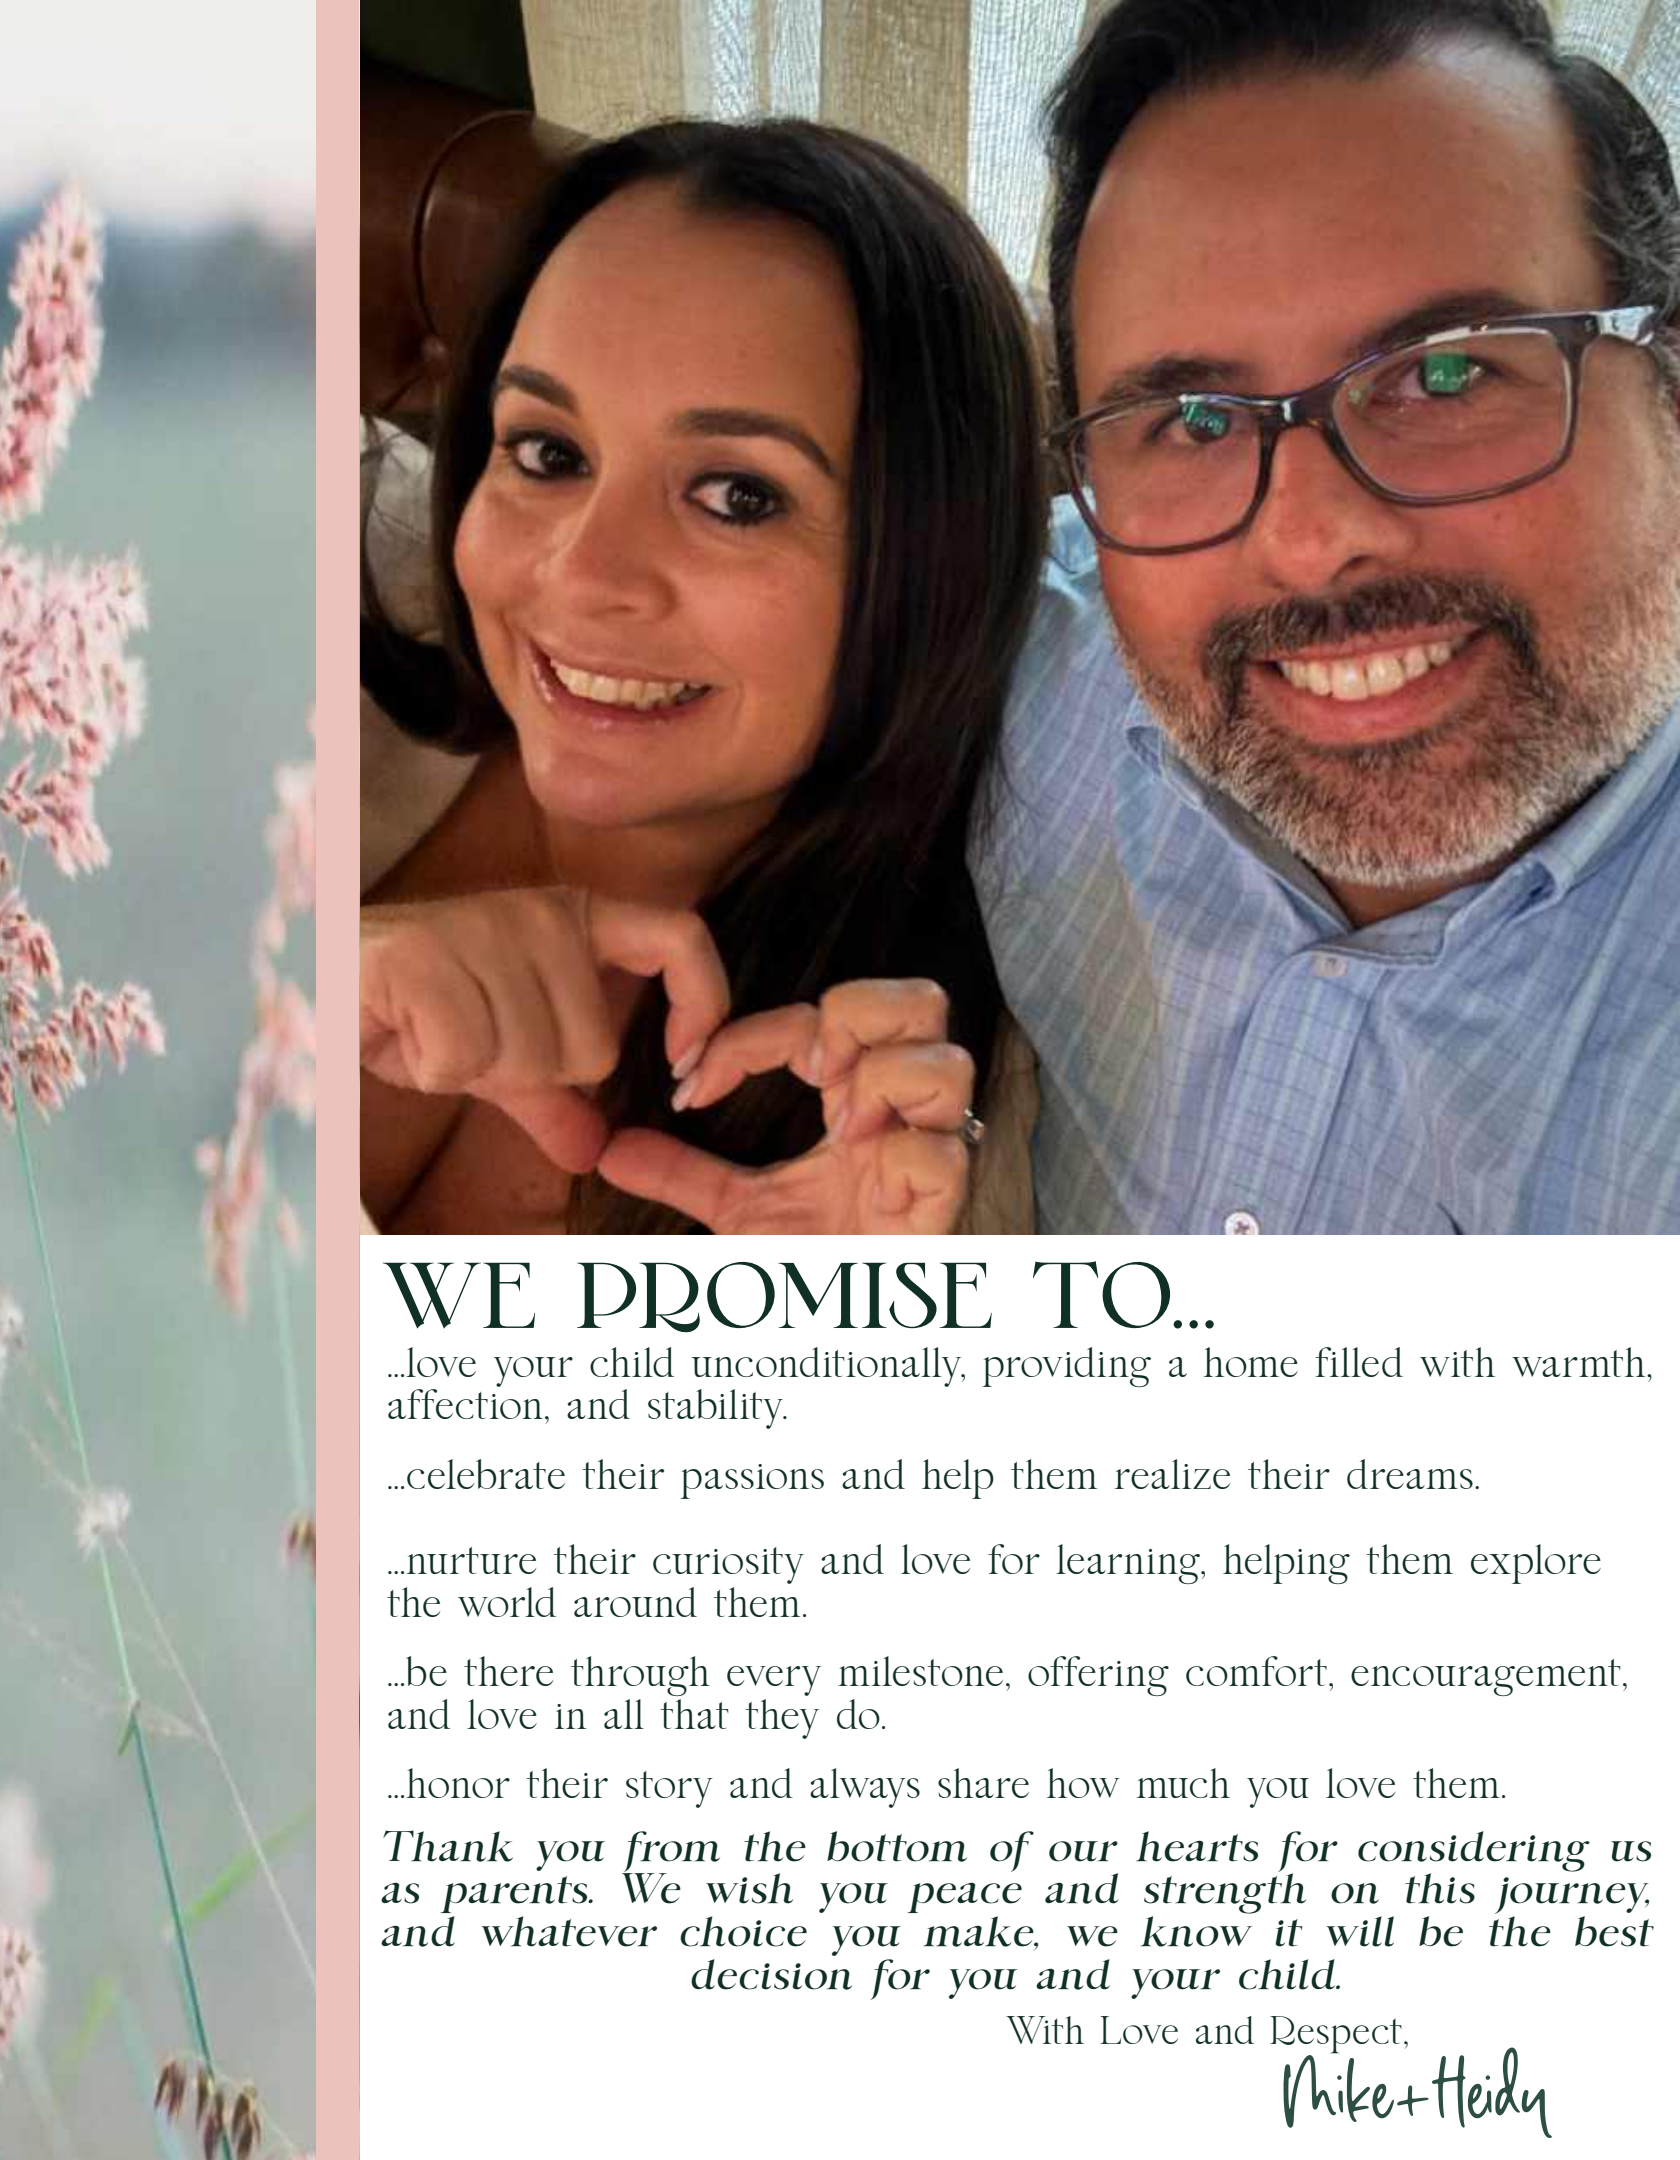

OUR VALUES

We are committed to raising a child who is kind, humble, and compassionate. We believe in teaching the importance of respect, helping others, and staying strong in the face of challenges. Education will be a priority, and we plan to provide our child with the best opportunities possible, including a private school education.

We will encourage curiosity and creativity, fostering their interests, whether in music, sports, or the arts. Above all, we want them to be confident, to know they are loved, and to feel proud of who they are as they grow.

WE PROMISE TO..

...love your child unconditionally, providing a home filled with warmth, affection, and stability.

...celebrate their passions and help them realize their dreams.

...nurture their curiosity and love for learning, helping them explore the world around them.

...be there through every milestone, offering comfort, encouragement, and love in all that they do.

...honor their story and always share how much you love them.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for considering us as parents. We wish you peace and strength on this journey, and whatever choice you make, we know it will be the best decision for you and your child.

With Love and Respect,

Mike+Heidy
