ABOUT ME

I am a business analyst; I like what I do, and I have great co-workers. When I am not working, I am hanging with family and friends. Birthday celebrations and holiday gatherings are common events for us; we love to celebrate each other.

Whether its exploring new places or working on a do-it-yourself project, I love to stay active. I can't wait to explore new places and find fun things to do together with a child!

Weekends are my favorite time of the week. It's my time to reconnect with family, enjoy movie and game nights. I love superhero films—trilogies are my favorite—and I follow everything Marvel.

THINGS I LIKE

- Watching action movies
- Gardening
- Going to music concerts
- Trying new food recipes
- Weekend getaways
- Hiking

Colorado

Traveling sparks my imagination, and DIY projects lets me unwind and be creative. Life for me is about balance—cherishing small moments and dedicating time to family and friends.

Most weekends I'm outside in my garden or helping friends build accent walls for their homes. Or, taking my nieces to the park.

MY FAMILY

I come from a large family; I have three sisters, one brother, four nieces, and three nephews. We are a close-knit group.

One of our family traditions is our annual vacation. Each year, we pick a different state to visit. Our favorite vacation spots thus far have been Florida, Tennessee, and Colorado. Theme parks are “our thing” so we usually find a location with a theme park or nice beach. Universal Studios, Busch Gardens, and Dollywood are my favorite parks. It is the one time a year when my family is in the same space. It is 11 of us so it’s logistically tricky, but we have been doing this for 14 years and we love it!

Thank you for taking the time to learn a little about me and considering an adoption plan for your child. Considering adoption for your child is a brave and selfless sacrifice. It is a choice that requires great sacrifice and love. I hope that through this process of choosing an adoptive family for your little one, that you will have peace knowing that your child will be loved and cared for unconditionally.

I became a foster parent, in 2022, to provide children with a nurturing and safe environment. The children placed in my care were reunited with their biological families, but the experience was both humbling and rewarding. I enjoyed caring for and getting to know each one of them. If chosen to be the parent of your child, I want you to know that I will love your child in the deepest and most profound way. I will be there to support your little one through the ups and downs that come in life.

MY PROMISE:

I promise to cherish, nurture, and support your child unconditionally. They will grow up in a home filled with laughter and unwavering love. Your child will be raised surrounded by family and friends who are already excited to meet them. Their well-being, education, and happiness will always be my top priority.

Your child's story will include you in the most sincere and respectful way, and I will always speak of you with gratitude and love. If you wish to stay connected in any way, I welcome that with an open heart, understanding that family comes in many different forms. I acknowledge the weight of your decision, so I make this promise with the utmost seriousness. I also want you to know the admiration that I have for you is tremendous and that I hope to support you any way I can.
