"Family is the heart's home, and loyalty is the foundation that keeps it strong." - Unknown

From Our Hearts to Yours

We cannot convey our appreciation and admiration for your strength and bravery. God's plan is different for all of us and the decisions we make touch so many lives.

Thank you for considering us to raise your beautiful baby. If selected, we promise to provide a loving and nurturing home filled with warmth and safety.

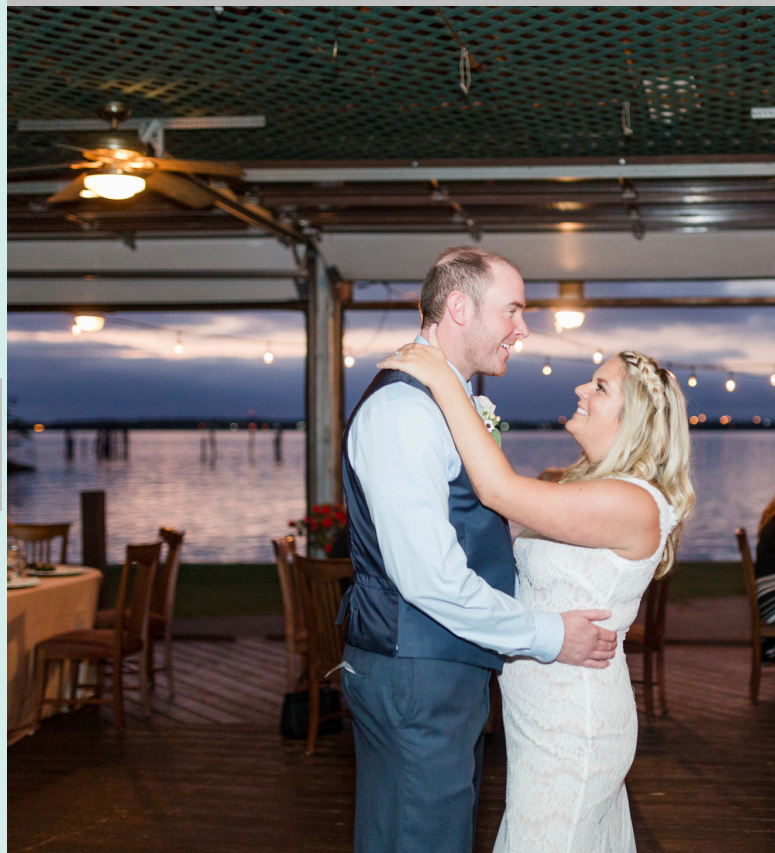

Regardless of the outcome, our thoughts and prayers will always be with you and your child.

Thank you!

How We Met!

We first crossed paths one evening downtown through mutual friends. As the night went on, we found ourselves talking long after everyone else had left, discovering that we lived just a few blocks apart!

After dating for four wonderful years, we tied the knot in Jamaica in 2017, surrounded by our loved ones. Now, we are excitedly looking forward to starting a family of our own!

Why Adoption?

Our path to adoption has been filled with challenges, as we have spent nearly eight years attempting to have children on our own and through IVF without success. After multiple miscarriages, continuing our previous efforts became a health concern.

Becoming parents has always been one of our greatest dreams. We have long imagined sharing our love for “field trips,” holidays, and family traditions with children of our own.

Though the path has been winding, we arrived at adoption with hope and excitement in our hearts. We have always retained a positive outlook and genuinely could not be more thrilled to embark on this new adventure.

Meet Lindsay

Occupation: Credit Analyst -(works from home)

Having grown up in a large family, Lindsay has always dreamed of having children of her own. Her parents remain happily together and live close by. She was nurtured with a strong faith in God, and divorce has never touched her extended family. Weekends were often spent at the beach, fostering her love for the great outdoors.

In her free time, Lindsay delights in traveling, watching movies, reading, taking walks, and discovering new places. She has a particular fondness for zoos, aquariums, and all things Disney.

What Phil loves about Lindsay:

Lindsay is loyal and loving. She loves big, and I am so grateful that I get to be a part of that affection.

Watching her care deeply for those around us has shown me how great a mom she'll be. She's also a lot of fun, always coming up with new adventures or projects, keeping our life interesting. No matter what comes, she always stays positive!

There's no place like home.

Our home is on a tree lined street in a great neighborhood in Pensacola. We love having quick access to the city, but living in a somewhat quiet neighborhood. We love hosting dinners and BBQ's for family and friends.

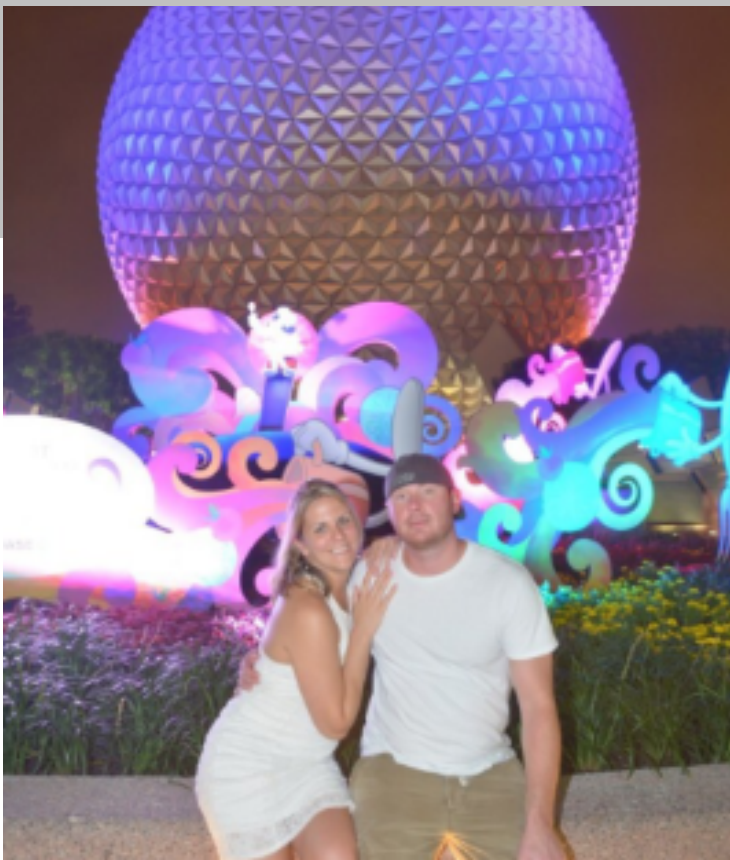

We've enjoyed planning and preparing our house for a new arrival. The space we have made in our home, we have made in our hearts, as well. We have so much love to share with a little boy or girl.

Travelling is one of our favorite pastimes. We love to visit new places and learn new cultures. It is so exciting packing our bags for a new destination. Here we visited Chichen Itza!

We took a trip to Thailand for a friend's wedding, where we had the incredible experience of riding elephants through the jungle hills. We eagerly anticipate taking our little boy or girl on many more exciting adventures in the future.

We love Florida! The beach and the water are a very calming place for us. We love boat rides and fishing and the fresh salty air. We enjoy swimming and camping and trips to Disney multiple times a year.
